Doe begins her book by describing her preparations for the hike. She discusses the training she did, the gear she packed, and the food she planned to eat. She also provides a brief overview of the history of the GR20 and the different sections of the trail.

Once Doe sets off on her hike, she quickly realizes that the GR20 is no walk in the park. The trail is often steep and rocky, and the weather can be unpredictable. Doe also encounters a number of challenges along the way, including getting lost, running out of food, and being injured. But despite all of these challenges, Doe never gives up on her dream of completing the GR20.

As Doe hikes the GR20, she meets a number of interesting people, including other hikers, shepherds, and villagers. She also learns a lot about herself and about the power of perseverance. Doe's book is full of inspiring stories about the people she meets and the challenges she overcomes.

Picture Walking Corsica And Sardinia: Walk The Talk 19 is a beautifully written and inspiring book that will appeal to anyone who loves hiking, travel, and adventure. Doe's stunning photographs and engaging writing style bring the GR20 to life, and her story of perseverance will inspire readers to never give up on their dreams.
