The Bill of Rights is the first article of the West Virginia Constitution. It contains 24 sections that guarantee the fundamental rights of all citizens. These rights include the right to free speech, the right to bear arms, the right to a fair trial, and the right to vote.

The West Virginia Constitution is a living document that has been interpreted and applied by the courts over the years. It is a vital part of the state's legal system and plays a significant role in protecting the rights of its citizens.

2024 Constitutional Convention

In 2024, the West Virginia Constitution will be revised and updated. This process is known as the constitutional convention. The convention will be composed of delegates elected by the people of West Virginia. The delegates will review the Constitution and make any necessary changes. The proposed changes will then be submitted to the voters for approval.

The 2024 constitutional convention is an important opportunity to update the Constitution and ensure that it meets the needs of the people of West Virginia. The delegates will work to ensure that the Constitution protects the rights of all citizens and that it reflects the values of the state.
